

General Rules, Agreements and Expectations

Welcome to Mr. Cabrera's Algebra 1 and Intensive Math classes. I look forward to us having a great year and trust that together we will create an enjoyable learning environment where all students will excel. To this end it is important that we establish the expectations in advance:

1) School and District:

Students are expected to follow all District and School rules.

2) Mr. Cabrera's Class:

At Mr. Cabrera's class all rules could be reduced to one word: RESPECT

3) Teacher, Students, and Parents/Guardians Agreements:

As a teacher, I will strive to:

- Show respect for each student and for his or her family.
- Make efficient use of learning time.
- Provide a safe and comfortable environment conducive to learning.
- Help each student grow to his or her fullest potential.
- Provide meaningful and appropriate classwork activities.
- Enforce school and classroom rules fairly and consistently.
- Supply students and parents with clear evaluations of progress and achievement.
- Demonstrate professional behavior and a positive attitude.

Students are expected to:

- Always try to do their best work and study each day.
- Be kind and helpful to classmates.
- Show respect for teachers, school and his or herself.
- Obey classroom and school rules.
- Never cheat or plagiarize.
- Come to class prepared with class supplies.
- Believe that they can and will learn.
- Make the best choices for themselves and their future.

- Talk with parents and/or guardians each week about school activities.

Parents/guardians are expected to:

- Show respect and support for their child, the teachers, and the school.
- Support the school's discipline policy.
- Attend parent/guardian-teacher conferences.
- Talk with their child each week about his or her school activities.

We all commit to working together to carry out these policies and ensure our collective success.
